First lottery since 1942 held in D.C.; lower third 'almost certain to be free'

By David E. Rosenbaum
(C) 1969 N.Y. Times News Service
WASHINGTON—The future of young men across the country was decided last night as, one by one, the dates of their birth were drawn in the first draft lottery in a generation.

The first date drawn was Sept. 14. Among the other dates picked in the drawing, which began the country between the ages of 19 and 26 who has not served in the military. Each of these men will be given a number, with those whose birthday was drawn first assigned no. 1 and so on through the 366 dates.

Beginning in January, potential draftees will be called in the order in which their birthdays were no. 2 if taken. Men in next year's draft pool whose assigned numbers are not reached by the end of the year will be free from draft liability entirely unless there is a national emergency.

Government officials say that men whose birthdays were among the last third drawn—roughly those
